MEDIA ADVISORY: Sacramento County Registrar of Voters Update

Last Day to Register for June Statewide Primary Election

Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that those interested in voting in the upcoming Statewide Primary Election have until Monday, May 24, 2010 to register to vote.

“We urge everyone who is not currently registered or those who want to change their party and participate in this election to make sure they are registered,” says LaVine.

To determine if you are currently registered, you can check the Registrar’s website at <http://www.elections.saccounty.net/VotingInformation/default.htm>

Voter Registration cards are available at libraries, post offices and government buildings.
