SACRAMENTO COUNTY REGISTRAR OF VOTERS ELECTION UPDATE

Sacramento County Elections Introduces New Election Night On-Line Reporting System

Sacramento County Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that their election night live results webpage will have a new look and interactive features that voters can customize.

The new election results webpage will allow users to expand search options as well as language, says LaVine. "The data, graphics and interactive features are user-friendly and easy to understand. We are excited to offer this new web-based election results system to Sacramento County voters."

Users will be able to customize the contest view, scroll through results and export results easily. This new application was funded by a grant from the Help America Vote Act (HAVA).

On election night, Tuesday, June 8, 2010, visit www.elections.saccounty.net/ for live election results with the new interactive features.
