Statewide Presidential Primary Election Update

Sample Ballot Booklets for June Election to Hit Mailboxes

Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that sample ballot booklets for the June 5 Statewide Presidential Primary Election have been mailed and will arrive in voters' mailboxes starting this week. They can also be viewed online at www.elections.saccounty.net.

The booklet contains the address of your polling place and ballot issues that you will vote on in your area. An application to request a vote by mail ballot is included on the back cover.

If you previously 'opted out' of receiving a paper version of the sample ballot booklet, it is available online. If you wish to 'opt out' for the November General Election, complete the application in your sample ballot booklet and return it, apply online, or call (916) 875-6451. You can always resume receiving the paper sample ballot booklet by mail if you change your mind.
