General Election Update GENERAL ELECTION SAMPLE BALLOT

Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that some voters received sample ballot booklets forwarded from their old addresses. These booklets may not have the right information for their new addresses, including their polling place location.

“Election related material is based on where you are registered to vote. If you have moved but not re-registered, any forwarded election mail may have the wrong information for your new address,” says LaVine.

Approximately 10,000 of the current 681,700 registered voters in Sacramento County received forwarded booklets. These voters have moved since registering to vote and did not reregister prior to the September mailing of the Sample Ballot Booklets.

“We are taking advantage of this information to contact these voters and have them update their registration,” says LaVine. Voters can register on-line through Monday October 22nd. Voters that are not able to reregister by this deadline can vote provisionally. “If your name is not on the roster at your polling place, you can always ask to vote a provisional ballot” says LaVine.
