Statewide Direct Primary Election Update BALLOT COUNTING COMPLETED

Registrar Certifies Election, Releases Final Results

Sacramento County Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that ballot counting for the June 3, 2014 Statewide Direct Primary Election has been completed and official results have been posted online. By law, counties have 28 days following an election to process all of the remaining ballots.

“The official turnout for Sacramento County in the Statewide Primary Election was 29.6 percent” said Jill LaVine, Registrar of Voters. LaVine notes that of the 203,849 ballots cast, 72 percent of voters cast their ballot by mail, while 28 percent did so at a polling place.
